

MISSIONS BROCHURE 2027

DEAR CHURCH FAMILY,

Ben Taylor
Missions Pastor

Bellevue Missions seeks to fulfill the vision of our church by equipping our members to engage in the missionary task where they live, work, and play. The Lord has placed each of you in our church for such a time as this to fulfill His purpose for your life.

In the pages that follow, you will be introduced to the ministry and strategy of Bellevue Missions. Because the opportunities to engage in missions are endless, we use the God-given vision and strategies discussed in this book to help us discern between what is good and what is best. The Lord has uniquely gifted our church with resources, and we believe our missions strategies help us effectively steward those resources locally, nationally, and internationally.

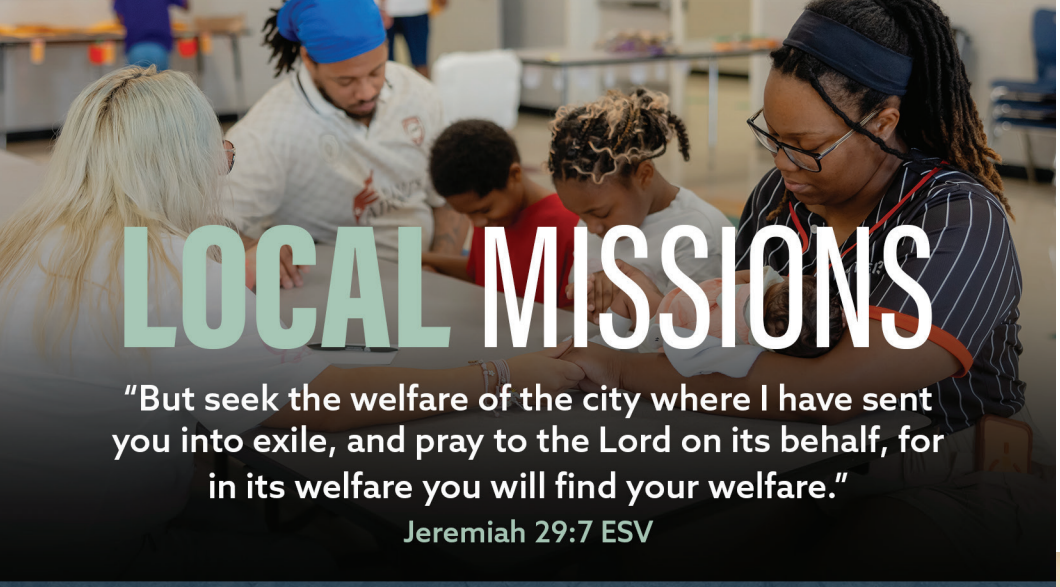

For our church to be a catalyst for spiritual awakening in Memphis and beyond, every member must seek to become a disciple who makes disciples right where they live. We long for the day when every Bellevue member actively obeys the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18–20). As we faithfully live out our faith, we will experience the work of the Lord that begins at home and moves to our nation and the nations.

As you pray about your faithful next step, consider how the Lord is leading you to pray, give, and go. Will you be obedient to the Lord's commands? Will you answer, "Here I am so all may hear"?

PRAY. GIVE. GO. BELLEVUE MISSIONS

Throughout this booklet, this stamp denotes our greatest needs for prayer, funding, and serving. Whenever you see it, please consider whether God is calling you to get involved in the opportunity.

LOCAL MISSIONS

"But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare."

Jeremiah 29:7 ESV

Strategy

If you look at the needs in our city, it's easy to be overwhelmed by how great they are. A few years ago, Bellevue Missions looked at the poverty, crime, and lostness of our city and asked, "Lord, where do You want us to begin?" We went to the Bible to find our answer. After looking at Scripture, we believe we must focus on three areas of local missions:

Cordova, compassion ministry, and church development. Anchoring our ministry to those pillars helps us strategically take the Gospel to our neighbors, to the vulnerable, and across Memphis and the Mid-South.

Each pathway is an existing need that you can fill today, so please consider making a commitment. Learn more at bellevue.org/pathways or email missions@bellevue.org.

Seek the welfare of our City

Every week, our church gathers in Cordova, yet thousands of people in our city drive past our building without ever walking through its doors. If Bellevue suddenly closed its doors, would our neighbors notice? Would Cordova feel the difference?

In Jeremiah 29:7, God reminds His people that they are a sent people—sent by God into exile to seek the welfare of the city where He has placed them. In the same way, God has sent Bellevue to Cordova to make disciples of Jesus Christ and to be a faithful presence in our community.

We cannot neglect the people God has placed right across the street. Our neighbor needs the hope of the Gospel, and we have been sent to take it to them.

This list will grow over the coming months, but right now Bellevue members have many opportunities to partner with these Cordova organizations. We pray you will consider how you might get involved.

NATIONAL MISSIONS

Strategy

Our beautifully diverse nation has over 340 million people who call it home. Yet in this place where everyone has the freedom to hear the Gospel, some 250 million people are lost (source: joshuaproject.net). We must not lose sight of the role our church plays in taking the hope of Jesus across our nation. Church planting is the foundation of our national missions strategy because we believe evangelism and discipleship are most effective in the context of a healthy local church. As believers gather and live as salt and light, they will slow the decay of sin and dispel the darkness where they live, work, and play.

INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS

Strategy

As followers of Jesus Christ, our mandate is clear: We are to take the Gospel to the ends of the earth (Matthew 28:18–20; Acts 1:8). Lostness is truly the greatest need our world faces today, and we must be willing to help meet that need. In a world of 8 billion people, there are 4.7 billion who need access to the Gospel (source: peoplegroups.org). Just like with national missions, our strategy in international missions is founded in church planting. Through God's introductions, we build relationships with people in other countries and foster ministry partnerships around the world. Church planting is one of God's greatest tools to combat the lostness of our world!

An international mission trip has the power to change your perspective, stretch your comfort zone, and open your heart to experiences that can shape your life in ways you never imagined. Stepping outside of what is familiar allows you to see the world through a different lens, build meaningful relationships across cultures, and recognize that while our backgrounds, languages, and traditions may differ, we are united by the love of Christ. You may arrive thinking you are going to serve others, only to discover how much God has to teach you along the way. These experiences challenge us to grow in faith, deepen our compassion, and trust God beyond our comfort zones. We are all on a journey, continually seeking what it means to take our faithful next step in our walk with Christ. Sometimes that next step is saying yes to an opportunity, going somewhere new, and allowing God to use the journey to change not only the lives of others, but our own as well. Visit bellevue.org/missions-projects for the latest updates and details.

MISSIONARY CARE

Research shows that when a missionary feels supported and encouraged, they are more likely to stay longer and finish stronger.

Bellevue has almost 30 individuals or church plant teams we have sent out over the past 15 years and this number is growing. Throughout the New Testament, we see many examples of the local church sending out the first missionaries, continuing to serve as the missionary's home base and then supporting the missionary through prayer, encouragement, advocation, connection, and practical care. 3 John 5–8

Advocacy Teams (A-Teams) are typically 4–10 members with a designated leader supporting a specific missionary or church plant team.

Working alongside the Missions Staff, Advocacy Teams are encouraged to find creative and intentional ways to care for and encourage their missionary. This may include traveling to their field of service for a short-term visit. Experiencing their ministry firsthand gives the team a deeper understanding of their missionary's work and provides meaningful opportunities to offer encouragement, respite, and practical care to the missionary family.

To learn more or join an A-Team email missions@bellevue.org.

MISSION HOMES

Bellevue owns five mission homes, offered to ministry partners and missionaries for respite and stateside accommodations. Our goal is to provide these families with a clean, safe, and welcoming environment where they can rest, be refreshed, feel encouraged, and experience the love and support of their Bellevue family. We hope these homes serve as a place of renewal as they continue the work God has called them to do.

JOIN A MISSION HOME CARE TEAM!

SEND OUT TRAINING

Classes offered each spring and fall.

Are you considering or pursuing a call to missions? Bellevue seeks to fulfill its vision by equipping church members to engage in the missionary task. That's why we have developed a 10-week training program to prepare individuals and help them better understand a calling to mid-term or long-term missions.

Send Out Training includes eight weeks of lectures and two weeks of practical application. You'll receive hands-on ministry training, immerse yourself in cultural experiences, and hear full-time missionaries speak on a variety of topics. If you feel a call to missions or simply want to go deeper in your walk with God, this training can truly impact your future.

"I love local missions because it's a simple way to get my family involved in serving and reaching our city, toddlers included."

"All of our callings to serve can be very different. For me, it was helping at a kid's camp in Montana. When we are willing to go where God calls us, He gives us rewarding moments like this one."

-WILL HAYES

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."
