

Course Title: English 5 / 6

Description:

Let's READ!!!

In this course, your students will set and achieve ambitious goals for themselves as they become confident readers, writers, and speakers in all subject areas. We will read and listen to both literary and informational texts that increase in complexity, and we will practice flexibility in choosing strategies for clarifying meaning. Students will begin to understand figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in meaning. Students will demonstrate understanding of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage in their writing and speaking, and they will acquire and use accurate and sophisticated vocabulary.
