

Course Title: English 8

Description:

Literature, literature, literature...are you scared when you hear these words? Don't be! This class is a fun and gentle introduction into literature from all around the world! We will be reading some of the great authors like Shakespeare, Orwell, C.S. Lewis, and more! Students will learn steps to excellent composition writing by building skills including brainstorming, revising, and evaluation. Students will be exercising their writing skills with creative writing exercises. Checklists for students will be provided for every writing exercise to ensure student success!

Prerequisites:

A basic knowledge of grammar is necessary to participate in this course. Students will need daily access to the internet and a printer for assignments

Thursdays 12:20 – 1:50 PM; 32 weeks

Minimum 6 students required to start

Textbook: (Literature books provided on loan)

Curriculum to be provided by tutor. Notebook required.

Teacher:

Shannon Jarvis; Contact Bellevue Tutorial, 901-347-5518, tutorial@bellevue.org

Cost:

$440