

Print and cut these starters to keep near your table. Select a few questions to jump-start table conversations. Listen, look for moments to encourage, and laugh. Revitalize your kitchen table and use mealtime to build relationships and to discuss your Christian faith and values. Family time is fun time!

What is your favorite Bible verse?

What is one thing you can't live without?

If you could have a super power, what would it be?

What would you do if you won $100?

What is something you can't live without?

What 3 things would you try to save from a fire (safely)?

What are some funny grandparent stories?

What do you think is your best talent?

What physical quality about yourself do you love most?

If you could have a conversation with anyone, who and what?

What makes you feel better when you are sad?

What is a personal goal for this year?

What is your favorite thing about being in this family?

If you could have a special parent-child only day, what would you want to do?

What is your favorite holiday tradition?

What is the most important thing your parents have taught you?

How do you think our family is better than other families?

What is something you like about each family member?

What is the most important quality of a parent?

How many family members can you name (extended, too)?

What makes a person popular?

What do you look for in a friend?

What makes you a good friend?

Name your 3 best friends.

What is the hardest thing about school?

What have you learned about God recently?

What could we do at a park as a family?

What makes you feel better when you're sad?

What makes you laugh out loud?

What is something you're scared to do?

Is it ever bad to have too much courage?

What is something you want to pray more about?

How are you like your parent(s)?

What 3 foods could you eat every day?

What would you do for fun if you had no electricity?

What would you do with an extra $10?

How would you show someone you loved them?

What 3 questions would you ask your pet?

What is your favorite unhealthy food?

What is your favorite healthy food?

What's the most courageous thing you've ever done?

What nice thing did you do for someone today?

What was the nicest thing someone did for you today?

What are some good "fish" names?

What could you invent to make your life easier?

What is your favorite funny joke?

What is the hardest thing about being 15 years old?

How would you describe God to someone who had never heard of Him before?

What would you like to try to do?

What do people need to know about God?

What would you choose to be your nickname?

What are 3 things you can do for fun when you're sick?

If you could organize a class field trip, where would you go?